All programs are held at the Plymouth Public Library unless otherwise indicated.
Family Bird Walk at Tidmarsh Wildlife Sanctuary
Saturday, June 1st @ 10 am, Manomet
Join us at Tidmarsh Wildlife Sanctuary to explore the trails and see what birds have found a home in this place designated just for them and other wildlife. We will stop at our pond where bullfrogs may greet us with a chorus, at our meadow where butterflies will flutter around us, and spots in between so you can get to know the wildlife sanctuary in your backyard! Ages 6 and up.

Jen Kane American Reading Adventure: Family American History Trivia
Saturday, June 1st, 2 pm
Test your knowledge of American history facts against other amateur historians of all ages! Compete as a team with family or friends and find out who knows the most about the history of the United States. Our top teams will win prizes! This program is the culmination of our annual Jen Kane American Reading Adventure, which has been developed with a donation from the Jen Kane Scholarship and Charitable Trust. Everyone invited!

Teen Advisory Group/Tween Interest Group
Wednesday, June 5th, 7 pm
Our Teen Advisory Group and Tween Interest Group meet once a month to plan events, discuss library volunteering opportunities, and test out new crafts and games. Come share your voice with the library and help us plan the future of teen and tween services!

Your Information Prescription: Staying Healthy at the Beach
Thursday, June 6th, 10:15 am, Manomet
Your Information Prescription comes back to Manomet this time with all the best tips and information on how to stay healthy at the beach this summer. Whether you’re walking the trails at Tidmarsh Audubon or the sands at White Horse Beach, it’s good to know exactly how to prepare. See a demonstration of MedlinePlus, the simplest way to search for health information, and see how you can discover an “ocean of knowledge” this summer for you and your family. Refreshments served, and see if you can win a seaside treat in our giveaway game.

PPL Classics Book Club
Monday, June 10th, 6:30 pm
* Tales of the City by Armistead Maupin
This is the first novel in the beloved series. For almost four decades Armistead Maupin’s Tales of the City has blazed its own trail through popular culture—from a groundbreaking newspaper serial to a classic novel, to a television event that entranced millions around the world. The first of nine novels about the denizens of the mythic apartment house at 28 Barbary Lane, Tales is both a sparkling comedy of manners and an indelible portrait of an era that changed forever the way we live.

Getting Started as a Writer
Tuesday, June 11th, 6 pm
Want to get published? Learn what it takes at this workshop with the Cape Cod Writers Center (CCWC). Join us for an introduction to writing professionally and get advice from writers with the CCWC.

PPL Book Club
Tuesday, June 11th, 7 pm
* There There by Tommy Orange
Tommy Orange’s “groundbreaking, extraordinary” (The New York Times) There There is the “brilliant, propulsive” (People Magazine) story of twelve unforgettable characters, Urban Indians living in Oakland, California, who congregate and collide on one fateful day. It’s “the year’s most galvanizing debut novel” (Entertainment Weekly).

* Food52 Genius Recipes: 100 Recipes That Will Change the Way You Cook by Kristen Miglore
These are what Food52 Executive Editor Kristen Miglore calls genius recipes. Passed down from the cookbook authors, chefs, and bloggers who made them legendary, these foolproof recipes rethink cooking tropes, solve problems, get us talking, and make cooking more fun. Every week, in her column at food52.com, Kristen features one such recipe and explains just what’s so brilliant about it. Here, in this book, she compiles 100 of the most essential ones with tips, riffs, mini-recipes, and stunning photographs. Some of these recipes you’ll follow to a T, but others will be jumping-off points for you to experiment with and make your own. Either way, with Kristen at the helm, revealing and explaining the genius of each recipe, Genius Recipes provides a go-to resource for smart, memorable cooking.

Frozen Desserts Social: Health Information Can Be Fun!*
Wednesday, June 19th @ 2 pm
* Snacking healthy in the Summer doesn’t have to be boring. Enjoy a frozen dessert and learn the health benefits of healthy summer snacks while enjoying a cool treat at the same time. MedlinePlus.gov and other sites from the National Institutes of Health provide helpful tips and guides. Outreach and Medical Librarian, Tom Cummiskey, will share how easy it is to find reliable and easy to understand health information online. The Consumer Health Information Center also provides a wealth of books and resources. This program is funded in part by the National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services, under Cooperative Agreement Number UG4LM012347 with the University of Massachusetts Medical School, Worcester. Funding also comes from a Health Literacy grant from the South Shore Community Partners in Prevention (CHNA-23).

History Book Group
